Classical Oil Painting: Open Studio

Wednesdays 9-12

In this open studio session, school head Trevor Twist provides instruction on individual projects with an emphasis on oil and canvas work. Students are welcome to bring on going projects or come in to start fresh. This class provides an excellent way to familiarize yourself with individual project development and developing your own sense of creative planning.

Landscape Oil Painting

Fridays 9-12

Join accomplished painter David Buckley Good for what is widely considered the most effective Landscape painting class in Maryland. With over 35 years of experience, David guides his students through the technical aspects of Oil painting and how the medium is used to create stunning landscapes. This class is perfect for the budding landscape artist looking to explore oils.

Wednesday Watercolor

Wednesdays 1-4

School head Trevor Twist hosts an open creative session with an emphasis on watercolor and drawing instruction. While centrally allowing high school students to focus on their individual work, the class also provides demonstrations in a range of mediums including watercolor and pen & ink. This is a great atmosphere to build a personal portfolio while improving artistic versatility
